Preface

The workshop is aimed at providing a platform for students, faculties, and researchers from various fields to discuss and share their experiences and insights on Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) and the challenges they pose in the current scenario. The event will feature a series of sessions, including lectures, panel discussions, and interactive workshops, to facilitate knowledge exchange and networking among participants.

The day will begin with registration at 10:00 AM, followed by a high tea at 10:30 AM. The conference will then proceed with an overview of IPR rights and their significance in the innovation ecosystem.

The afternoon session will cover the importance of IPR in today's global economy, focusing on the protection of intellectual property rights. A panel discussion will explore the need for stronger legislation and enforcement mechanisms to safeguard IPR.

In the evening, a closing ceremony will mark the end of the event. Participants will have the opportunity to network and discuss the key takeaways from the day.

The workshop is open to all interested parties, including students, faculty members, researchers, and professionals in the field of Intellectual Property Rights. It is an excellent opportunity for those looking to deepen their understanding of IPR and contribute to the ongoing dialogue on this critical topic.
