National Conference

Reinventing and Recasting the Praxis of Globalization

Activity Report
A UGC sponsored National Seminar titled Re-inventing and Recasting the Praxis of Globalisation was held in the seminar hall of Christian College, Chengannur, from 4th – 6th December, 2014. The seminar was attended by students, scholars and faculty from institutions across the country and presented differing perspectives of the impact of globalization in the social, industrial, political and cultural realms that shape human lives all around us at a surprisingly rapid pace. A variety of 23 papers reflecting the length and breadth of the subject were presented over three days. The papers reflected a common thread in theorizing the pressures of globalization and the process of cultural signification.

The Resource persons and luminaries leading the seminar included the renowned writer and Tibetan activist Tenzin Tsundue, C. Gouridasan Nair (Bureau Chief, The Hindu, Trivandrum), Dr. Meena T. Pillai (Professor and Director, Centre for Cultural Studies, Institute of English, Trivandrum) and Dr. Siby James (Associate Professor, St Thomas College, Pala). Moderators including research guides and faculty from other colleges navigated the paper presentations. Dr. P. Harikrishna (Associate Professor and Head, Dept of English, NSS College Pandalam) and Dr. Lata Marina Joseph (Associate Professor and Head, Dept of English, Baselious College, Kottayam) were among the moderators.

The expositions of the resource persons and the 23 papers were published in a proceedings issue under the title of the seminar with ISBN.
